BEL AIR'S SLOGAN proclaims it to be the 'Heart of Harford.' It is centrally located in Harford County; and as you will discover, it is a small town with big heart! Bel Air is often described as 'charming' and full of character. The warm hospitality of its residents and the convenience of being close to restaurants, pubs, breweries, local businesses, and parks will have you visiting again and again. Take a trip to the farmer's market or shop specialty boutiques on Main Street. Bel Air is a state-designated Arts and Entertainment District boasting long-standing annual events like the Bel Air Festival for the Arts, Bel Air Film Festival, Summer Concert Series, and the Maryland State BBQ Bash.

ABERDEEN

ABERDEEN is the largest municipality in Harford County, offering a unique mix of small town charm intertwined with conveniences of a large city. Boasting recreational areas with playgrounds, disc-golf, workout equipment, inline hockey rink, and swimming areas make Aberdeen the perfect family-fun destination. Head to Aberdeen's downtown for a night of bowling or attend events at Festival Park such as the Farmer's Market, Food Trucks in the Park, or Christmas Street celebration. Catch an Ironbird's baseball game at Ripken Stadium and be thrilled by an amazing fireworks display. All history buffs are welcome to learn about the rich history of the B&O Railroad and the canning industry, the Aberdeen Proving Ground. Visitors can view original artifacts at the Aberdeen Historical Museum.

HAVRE DE GRACE

LOCATED ON THE banks of the Susquehanna River, the charming waterfront community of Havre de Grace blends its rich history with a full slate of events designed for a vibrant community. Havre de Grace offers a truly authentic Chesapeake Bay experience, with a delightful mix of restaurants, unique bed and breakfast inns, specialty boutiques and antique shops. Waterfront trails, world-class golf, scenic parks, and an eclectic arts community characterize this quaint city by the Bay.

Harford Plein Air Painting Festival

The Harford Plein Air Festival is an annual juried plein air painting competition and art sale in Harford County hosted by the Maryland Center for the Arts. Artists from all over the U.S. compete for awards and sell their artwork in a gallery sale at Bel Air Armory. The juried artists will paint in several outdoor locations throughout Harford County, including farms, waterfront, historic towns, marinas, natural parks, and more. Community artists of all ages can participate in the one-day Quick Draw Competition. Visit MDCFA.org for more information.

SATISFYING LIBATIONS

HARFORD COUNTY has three incredible vineyards, each producing its own distinct varieties of wines. See what's brewing at all seven of our locally-owned craft breweries - from pub-style to on-farm breweries - we are serving up only the best with fresh ingredients. Did you know Harford is also producing whiskey and fine spirits? If not, you better get tasting… Cheers!
